April 11, 1969

Mr. Dudley Lynch
Christian Chronicle
P. O. Box 4055
Austin, Texas

Dear Dudley:

"Living in Acts 2!" must be the Christian Chronicle's finest hour. This is journalism at its best, at least in my judgment. My admiration comes not from your sensitive treatment of one of my "pet" concerns but from your competent reporting of what happened at Daytona. When we can unemotionally relate the facts and honestly keep after truth we show our greatest respect for those who listen and read.

Chuck Lucas is everything you picture him to be. Ann (Mrs. Chuck) Lucas is a brilliant and devoted woman who happens to be my wife's younger sister rather than mine (as reported on page nine of your April 9, 1969 story). I wish Ann and I had come out of the same gene-pool but I am grateful to have her older sister as my mate for life!

In the midst of other valid approaches to journalism within our brotherhood, isn't there room for something like the Chronicle? I think so, even if I wouldn't defend the Chronicle as the sine qua non of Christian communication.

Fraternally,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
